REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Members
 Oakmont Senior Living LLC and Subsidiaries

Report on Consolidated Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Oakmont Senior Living LLC (a California limited liability company) and Subsidiaries (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in owners' deficit and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Oakmont Senior Living LLC and Subsidiaries as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Consolidating Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic consolidated financial statements of Oakmont Senior Living LLC and Subsidiaries taken as a whole. The 2014 consolidating information presented on pages 16 through 19 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic 2014 consolidated financial statements. Such consolidating information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The consolidating information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the consolidating information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

NOTE 1 – DESCRIPTION OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of operations – Oakmont Senior Living LLC (the Company) was formed on November 1, 2000, as a California limited liability company. The Company's purpose is to develop, construct, operate, lease, and own apartments, independent living, assisted living, and continuing care retirement communities. The Company operates retirement facilities it owns or leases located in Alameda, Santa Rosa, Palm Desert, and Brea, California. The Company also owned and leased an apartment complex in Santa Rosa, California.

Basis of accounting and principles of consolidation – The consolidated financial statements are presented on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) and include the accounts of the Company and the following entities:

OSL Operations of Chino Hills LLC [Distributed to members December 31, 2013]	Oakmont SL of Alameda LP
OSL of Escondido LLC [Liquidated in December 31, 2013]	Varena at Fountaingrove LLC
OSL of Chino Hills LLC [Distributed to members December 31, 2013]	Varena LLC
Oakmont SL of Chino Hills LP [Distributed to members December 31, 2013]	Varena Apartments LLC
Cardinal Point at Mariner Square LLC	Varena Assisted Living LLC
Cardinal Point Social Club LLC	Vineyard Creek LP [Distributed to members December 31, 2013]
OSL of Alameda LLC	Varena Care Center LP [Distributed to members December 31, 2014]
Capriana Operations LLC	Segovia Operations LLC
OSL of Vineyard Creek LLC [Distributed to members December 31, 2013]	Fountaingrove Lodge LLC

All significant transactions between these entities have been eliminated.

On December 31, 2014, the Company distributed its partnership interest in Varena Care Center LP proportionately to the individual members of the Company. In conjunction with the change to the ownership structure, the Company determined that it no longer controlled this entity and it was deconsolidated effective December 31, 2014.

The Company adopted accounting standards that address consolidation by business enterprises of variable interest entities (VIEs). The Company has considered its agreements and business activities with related parties in order to determine whether any of the relationships would qualify as VIEs and whether the Company would be deemed to be the primary beneficiary and be required to consolidate the activities of these VIEs in the Company's consolidated financial statements. The Company identified OSL of Chino Hills LLC; Oakmont SL of Chino Hills LP; and Vineyard Creek LP, as VIEs and through 2012 had concluded that it is the primary beneficiary in accordance with GAAP, primarily due to the fact that the Company has an ownership percentage of 49.95% to 50% and ultimately the Company, combined with its related parties and de facto agents, controls and supports the activities that most significantly impact the entities. The Company's consolidated equity is reflected as the controlling financial interest in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The Company does not consider tenancy-in-common arrangements to be VIEs. As of December 31, 2014, the Company has determined that it is no longer the primary beneficiary of any VIEs.

On December 31, 2013, the Company distributed its membership interests in OSL Operations of Chino Hills LLC, OSL of Chino Hills LLC, Oakmont SL of Chino Hills LP, OSL of Vineyard Creek LLC, and Vineyard Creek LP, proportionately to the individual members of the Company. In conjunction with the change to the structure of the entities, the Company determined it is no longer the primary beneficiary of these entities and they were deconsolidated effective December 31, 2013.

The power to direct the activities of these entities was evaluated in making this determination and the Company concluded that the members of the entities, and not the Company, hold this decision-making power. Further, it was concluded that the members of the entities have the obligation to absorb potential losses and the right to receive the benefits derived from the entities. The Company does not believe they are exposed to any future losses from the relationship with these entities.

The Company has no direct ownership in these entities and does not expect to provide any financial or other support, explicitly or implicitly that it was not previously contractually required to provide. While the Company has neither a contractual obligation to do so, nor any current intent, it may voluntarily elect to provide the entities with additional direct or indirect financial support based on their objectives and cash-flow needs. In addition, the Company has concluded the restructure of the entities constitutes a reconsideration event and the entities are no longer considered VIEs, as defined by GAAP, as they have sufficient equity at risk.

The Company has identified certain other related entities with common ownership as VIE's and has concluded that it is not the primary beneficiary in accordance with GAAP, primarily due to the fact that the Company does not have a direct ownership and ultimately the members of such entities control and support the activities that most significantly impact operations. Each of these entities has been financed either through capital contributions or related-party debt, some of which was provided by the Company (see Note 5). The Company has no contractual obligation to support the operations of these entities; however, it may voluntarily elect to provide additional direct or indirect support based on each business' objectives and cash-flow needs.

Use of estimates – The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of risk – Financial instruments potentially subjecting the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of demand deposits and other cash accounts (including restricted amounts) that may be in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insured limits, and accounts receivable.

Cash and cash equivalents – The Company considers all highly liquid investments, with an original maturity of three months or less when purchased, to be cash and cash equivalents.

Restricted cash – Restricted cash consists of collections for entrance fee deposits, operating expense impound accounts required by the Company's lenders, and restricted cash accounts used as collateral as required by one of the Company's lenders.

Accounts receivable and other assets – Accounts receivable and other assets consist of trade receivables, receivables from tenants, deposits, and prepaid expenses. Accounts receivable consists of payments owed from residents for services rendered, which does not represent concentrated credit risks to the Company. Management regularly monitors and adjusts its reserves and allowances related to these receivables. Accounts deemed to be uncollectible are written-off only after all reasonable collection efforts are exhausted. At December 31, 2014 and 2013, accounts receivable is presented net of an allowance of $0 and $21,300, respectively.

Deferred financing related costs – Costs incurred in connection with obtaining financing have been deferred and are amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the associated indebtedness, which approximates the effective interest method.

OAKMONT SENIOR LIVING LLC AND SUBSIDIARIES

Investments in real estate – Investments in real estate are recorded at the lesser of cost or estimated fair-market value, if impaired, and include interest and property taxes capitalized on long-term construction projects during the construction period, as well as other costs directly related to the development and construction of facilities. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets as follows:

Buildings and improvements	30 - 40 years
Furniture, fixtures, and equipment	3 - 10 years

The Company reviews its investments in real estate whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the cost basis of such assets may not be recoverable. If the cost basis of an investment in real estate is greater than the projected future undiscounted net cash flows (before interest) from that property, an impairment loss is recognized. Impairment losses are calculated as the difference between the property's cost basis and its estimated fair value. No such impairment losses have been recognized to date. An investment in real estate held for sale is carried at the lower of its carrying amount or estimated fair value, less costs to sell. The Company considers an investment in real estate held for sale when the property is being actively marketed for sale, and expects it to sell within one year. There were no properties held for sale at December 31, 2014 and 2013.

Investment in tenant-in-common interest – Investment in tenant-in-common (TIC) interest is accounted for using the equity method of accounting, whereby the Company's investment balance reflects its proportionate share of profits and losses from the TIC interest. Contributions made to the TIC interest are reflected as increases in the Company's investment balance and distributions are reflected as decreases. On January 1, 2013, the Company distributed its interest in the Bell Village TIC to the individual members of the Company.

Deferred rent – Deferred rent consists of the difference between the amount recognized as rent expense and the amount of rent paid due to step increases in the lease agreement.

Interest rate cap – The Company entered into an interest rate cap agreement associated with its borrowings, as disclosed in Note 3. An interest rate cap is considered a derivative financial instrument in accordance with accounting standards that require each derivative instrument (including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts) be recorded in the consolidated balance sheets as either an asset or liability measured at its estimated fair value. The accounting standards also require that changes in the derivative's fair value be recognized currently in consolidated earnings unless specific hedge accounting criteria are met. The only derivative used by the Company is the interest rate cap with changes in its fair-market value recorded as a component of interest expense. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, management has determined the difference between the carrying value and the fair-market value of the derivative to be immaterial.

Revenue recognition – Resident fee revenue, presented as continuing care and non-continuing care contracts, is recorded when services are rendered and consist of fees for basic housing, support services, and fees associated with additional services, such as personalized health and assisted living care. Residency agreements are generally for a term of 30 days to one year, with resident fees billed monthly in advance. Revenues for certain care services provided are also charged in advance. Additional ancillary charges are billed monthly in arrears. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, approximately $463,100 and $349,300, respectively, was recorded in deferred revenue related to fees paid by applicants prior to occupancy.

Residents pay an entrance fee to occupy a unit and pay monthly fees for housing, food, and services. The Company has residency agreements that require the resident to pay an upfront entrance fee prior to joining the community that is 100% refundable within 90 days of occupancy. After the initial 90 days of occupancy, the entrance fees are a combination of refundable and non-refundable in accordance with the terms of the contracts. The non-refundable portion of the entrance fee is recorded as an entrance fee non-refundable liability and amortized over the estimated stay of the resident based on an actuarial valuation. The refundable portion of a resident's entrance fee is refundable upon the resale of the unit and is recorded as a liability on the consolidated balance sheets.

Certain contracts require the refundable portion of the entrance fee to be refunded only upon resale of the unit (contingently refundable). Upon resale, the Company may receive re-occupancy proceeds in the form of additional contingently refundable fees, refundable fees, or nonrefundable fees.

Entrance fees non-refundable, amortized over the estimated stay of the resident, were $24,763,200 and $25,763,300 at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. Entrance fees subject to refund at December 31, 2014 and 2013, were $172,177,600 and $153,175,100, respectively. It is management's expectation that future refunds will not have a significant effect on the consolidated financial statements.

Revenue recognized from amortization of entrance fees non-refundable totaled $4,097,600 and $3,182,400 for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

The Company's operations also include leasing apartment units. Rental income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lives of the related leases when collectability is reasonably assured. The lease terms are generally for periods of one year or less. Differences between the rental revenue recognized and amounts due under the respective lease agreements with terms in excess of one year are recorded as deferred rent receivable. Ongoing credit evaluations are performed and an allowance for potential credit losses is provided against the portion of accounts receivable that is estimated to be uncollectible.

Advertising – The Company expenses its advertising costs as they are incurred. Advertising expenses amounted to $1,145,200 and $852,000 for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Income taxes – The Company is taxed as a partnership for federal and state purposes. As a partnership, all federal and state income tax liability flows through to the Company's members. No provision for income taxes is included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

The Company follows the accounting standard related to accounting for uncertain tax positions. The standard prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for accounting for uncertain tax positions and also provides guidance on various related matters, such as derecognition, interest, penalties, and disclosures required. The Company does not have any entity level uncertain tax positions. The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of California. The Company is subject to examination by U.S. federal income tax authorities for years back to 2011, and by the State of California for the tax years back to 2010. The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to income tax matters in operating expenses.

Obligation to provide future services – If the present value of estimated future cash outflows to provide services to residents exceeds the present value of estimated future cash inflows from residents, a liability is recognized. The Company has determined that no accrual for the obligation to provide future services and use of facilities to current residents was required at December 31, 2014 and 2013. The discount rate used to calculate the obligation to provide future services is 5%.

Statutory cash reserve requirements – The Company is subject to statutory cash reserve requirements. At December 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company's reserves were in excess of such requirements by $34,049,300 and $22,845,300, respectively, as calculated in accordance with the Continuing Care Contract Statutes of the California Health and Safety Code.

New accounting pronouncements – In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). The update supersedes the revenue recognition requirements in FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 605, "Revenue Recognition." Under the new guidance, an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. ASU 2014-09 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016, including interim periods within that reporting period. Early adoption is not permitted.

Subsequent events – Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the consolidated balance sheet date, but before the consolidated financial statements are issued. The Company recognizes, in the consolidated financial statements, the effects of all subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the consolidated balance sheet, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the consolidated financial statements. The Company's consolidated financial statements do not recognize subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the consolidated balance sheet, but arose after the consolidated balance sheet date and before the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through April 28, 2015, which is the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued, in accordance with the Company's policy related to disclosures of subsequent events.

OAKMONT SENIOR LIVING LLC AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTE 2 – DISCLOSURES ABOUT FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company has adopted accounting standards for fair value measurements for all financial instruments accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis. The accounting standards establish a framework for measuring fair value and expand related disclosures. Broadly, this framework requires fair value to be determined based on the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. The standard establishes market or observable inputs as the preferred sources of values, followed by assumptions based on hypothetical transactions in the absence of market inputs.

The valuation techniques required by the standard are based upon observable and unobservable inputs. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect our market assumptions. The three levels of inputs used to establish fair-value are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets

Level 2: Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and model-derived valuations whose inputs are observable or whose significant value drivers are observable

Level 3: Significant inputs to the valuation model that are unobservable

As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company had no material balances recorded at fair value. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value:

Cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash – The carrying amount approximates fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments.

Debt obligations – The fair value of the Company's debt obligations is estimated based on the quoted market prices for the same or similar issues or on the current rates offered to the Company for debt of the same remaining maturities. The estimated fair values of the Company's debt obligations approximate the carrying values at December 31, 2014 and 2013.

The loan agreements contain general affirmative and negative covenants that include provisions for the upkeep of the properties, maintenance, insurance, compliance with laws, and financial reporting requirements. ## REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Fountaingrove Lodge LLC

Report on Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Fountaingrove Lodge LLC (the Company), which comprise the continuing care liquid reserve schedules, Form 5-1 through Form 5-5 as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the liquid reserve requirements of California Health and Safety Code Section 1792. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the continuing care reserve of Fountaingrove Lodge LLC as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, in conformity with the liquid reserve requirements of California Health and Safety Code Section 1792.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to the basis of accounting used to prepare the financial statements. The financial statements are prepared on the basis of the liquid reserve requirements of California Health and Safety Code Section 1792, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, to meet the requirements of California Health and Safety Code Section 1792. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Restriction on Use

Our report is intended solely for the information and use of the members, management of the Company, and the California Department of Social Services and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.
